Message from the Bishop

Five hundred and seventeen young people came forward for Confirmation in the Diocese of Achonry this year. I have had the joy of celebrating this significant sacrament with a similar number of young women and men each year in the Diocese for the past six years. Each one of these candidates is 'sealed with the gift of the Holy Spirit', through the anointing with the Oil of Chrism. This happens individually immediately after the community of believers have joined with the Bishop in fervently praying for the Holy Spirit to come upon these young candidates and be alive in them. The Holy Spirit is alive in us when any of the seven gifts are alive and active in the way we live, the choices we make, the activities in which we engage.

If as church and parish community we facilitate the young people in coming to Confirmation, then we have a serious obligation to call them afterwards to actively live out their confirmation, and to help them to do so. This, it seems to me, is where the Pope John Paul II Award can come in.

The post-confirmation years for the young person are years of great energy and great eagerness to be involved in the world, and especially in the local community and church, in a more mature and adult way. We need our young people with their many gifts and great enthusiasm in all our parishes, and what a difference it would make to our parishes if they were involved and active. The ancient Confirmation hymn 'Veni Creator Spiritus' (Come Holy Spirit) contains the line - 'You in your seven-fold gifts are known': known when our actions and lives show forth wisdom, understanding, right judgement, courage, knowledge, reverence and wonder and awe in God's presence. If we invite our young people to take up the challenge of the Pope John Paul II Award, then it is in this context of our commitment as parish to them as Confirmed young people that we do so, enabling the gifts come alive in them. When we invite young people to participate, the Award can be an opportunity for us in our parishes to creatively be faithful to them, and to the commitment we make as church to them when we accept them for the Sacrament of Confirmation. It is a responsibility we have not always sufficiently honoured, and for that we need to make amends.

So it is with a sense of opportunity and great hope that I welcome this initiative in the Diocese, and I thank the teachers, priests and particularly the Knights of Columbanus who have been instrumental in introducing the Award to us. Go raibh beannacht Dé go fial ar an saothar seo don óige sa deoise.

Bishop of Achonry

Pope John Paul II Award

The Award was created to commemorate the late Pope John Paul II who was so committed to young people and who had such belief and confidence in them.

Through the Pope John Paul II Award, young people in the Achonry Diocese will be enabled to take an active part in the life of their Church, in the life of their community and society, and also become more aware of the teaching and role of the Catholic Church in the world. This will enable young people to engage at a deep level with Christ, whose body the Church is.

It will allow young people to understand that religion and faith are not just for learning, nor are they a list of rules, but that they are for living.

Parish Involvement

Encouraging Parish Involvement

When we are baptised we become members of the Body of Christ. This means that we are called to be the presence of Christ in the world. As the Body of Christ, we belong to the community of the Church. We live out this belonging in our parish. For the Church, for the Body of Christ to be fully alive everybody needs to be actively involved. There are many things we can do in our parish.

Examples of activities that can be done for the Award in the parish are:

- Reading at Mass
- Altar Server
- Eucharistic Minister
- Member of choir/folk group
- Church Decoration
- Usher/Collector
- Composing prayers of the faithful
- Assisting with preparation of Parish Newsletter/Bulletin
- Forming/Leading/Co-ordinating parish youth prayer meeting

There may be other activities that you are involved in that are not included here but may be relevant, if so please contact the Pope John Paul II Award Committee for approval at Achonry Youth Ministry, The Presbytery, Ballaghaderreen, Co. Roscommon.

Social Awareness

Encouraging Social Awareness

As members of the Body of Christ, through baptism, we make Christ present by the way we treat others. Our faith is lived out most fully in our actions, that is why it is important to be aware of the needs of others and to minister to their needs. That is why 'Social Awareness' is such an important aspect of this Award.

Examples of activities in the area of Social Awareness that you could do for your Award are:

- Member of St. Vincent de Paul
- Member of Legion of Mary
- Leader of Foróige or No Name Club
- Coaching games
- Volunteering in Charity Shop/Ongoing fundraising
- Ongoing fundraising for charities
- Regular visitation of residential homes
- Faith Friends and other Confirmation Programmes

There may be other activities that you are involved in that are not included here but may be relevant, if so please contact the Pope John Paul II Award Committee for approval at Achonry Youth Ministry, The Presbytery, Ballaghaderreen, Co. Roscommon.

Presentation

Preparing the Presentation

When the participant completes the Parish Involvement and the Social Awareness sections of the Award he/she prepares a presentation. This presentation may be written (approx 1500 words). On request it can take the form of an oral presentation which will be recorded and then transcribed.

The Presentation is to include:

- A personal reflection and evaluation on any one activity carried out for the Award
- The teaching of the Church that is relevant to the activity (e.g. visiting a residential home - teaching of the Church in relation to the care of the elderly and vulnerable. Reading at Mass - teaching of the Church in relation to the Word of God).
- An answer to the question - What does it mean to be a baptised member of the Church?

Through the Presentation, the participant will show a knowledge and understanding of what they did within the context of the Church. Their role within the Church will become more apparent.
